FRIDAY AT THE BEACON — The Fretliners will perform this Friday, Sept. 1 at The Custer Beacon. Winners of the band contest at the 50th Annual Telluride Bluegrass Festival, The Fretliners are a powerhouse progressive bluegrass quartet born around a single microphone in a barn in the Rocky Mountains. Influenced by a multitude of genres and steeped in that High Lonesome sound, they machete through the bluegrass and newgrass jungle leaving new pathways and possibilities in their wake. Expect hard driving energy, exhilarating solos, soaring vocals and captivating lyrical stories. [Submitted Photo]

MG BAILEY — MG Bailey will perform at Miner Brewing Co. in Hill City this Sunday, Sept. 3 at 5:40 P.M. Bailey, a gentle giant of a man armed with a formidable array of unconventional instruments, has been blending punk, blues, pop and soul influences for his entire musical career, without any regard to what sells at the time. His new record, Long Time Comin', features new material alongside fully-realized re-recordings of old songs, all rough edges and loud noises camouflaging a remarkable knack for pop songwriting and mind-bending musicianship.
