Thank you for Joining Us

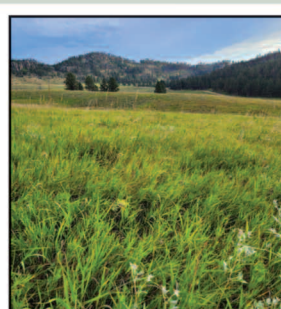

Thank you to all the local caterers and vendors that worked to host the recent community open houses in September and November, and to all those that joined us to learn about enCore Energy and the Dewey Burdock project. We would also like to thank Cameco for the site tour of their Crow Butte In-Situ Recovery Operation and those that attended.

We will keep you posted on our next open houses to follow after the holiday season.

For more information on the project in the meantime please visit www.deweyburdock.info, or contact a member of the team with any questions at info@encoreuranium.com

PRINT IS NOT DEAD.

Our brains remember print. Why? Because print commands our attention in a way that digital ads do not.

They are also more credible with a large number of people (71 percent) trusting print ads over television or online ads.

Newspapers are also far from dead with nearly 70 percent of Americans still reading them — 50 percent of those readers consume them in print only. You gotta be in the paper!

Pet of the Week

Who needs some barn cats? There are 30-40 cats available, and they will be spayed and neutered. They can also be separated. The individual who had been taking care of them is no longer able to do so, so the shelter is trying to re-home them. Note: the picture is for attention, not of the available cats.

All 'Pet of the Week' listings are available for adoption at the Battle Mountain Humane Society.
