JOHNNY HASTINGS — Johnny Hastings is one of the Midwest's most fluent and expressive guitar players. Johnny Hastings & Stillhouse Down reside in the Black Hills of South Dakota. Having not played music together for almost a decade, the band came together around a shared love of Blues music. Their sound draws inspiration from traditional Blues and Americana influences that embodies the sound of western South Dakota. They have plans to record an EP soon but for the time being are staying busy playing regionally and contributing to other musical projects. They take the stage of the Prairie Dog Taproom outside of Hill City Friday evening. [Submitted Photo]

HANG WITH THE JUNKIES — Acoustic adventurers Stillhouse Junkies explore the worlds between roots, bluegrass, Texas swing, blues, and rock. Their free-flowing musical interplay and improvisation make every show unique as the trio weave through high-energy, intricately composed original songs, never taking the same path twice. Formed in 2017, the band consists of Fred Kosak (guitar, mandolin), Alissa Wolf (fiddle), and Jeanette Adams (bass). They will take to the stage of the Custer Beacon this Saturday evening.
